

To Whom It May Concern:

K-LOVE is an important part of my daily life. This station allows my family and I to worship the God we serve thru music and scripture in the car and at work. We hope that you will take into consideration the lives that this station touches before making any decisions to take it, or other stations like it, off the air.

Sincerely,
Heather Crawford